

Erika Davison-Aviles

Tell us about your background:

I am a business executive and fintech innovator with over 20 years of experience in financial services, banking, government, and private sector employee benefits administration. I Co-founded TempoPay, a financial wellness and payments solution that aims to revolutionize the way people access healthcare and manage their expenses. As CEO, I lead the business, product vision, and strategy drawing on my comprehensive payments and benefits knowledge background to create products that people love and trust.

I have a proven history of launching and scaling successful products in the fintech space. Before co-founding TempoPay, I was Head of Product at Elevate where I helped build a modern consumer directed benefits platform. I am passionate about empowering people to achieve financial wellness and security through innovative and user-friendly products. I also collaborate with individuals and local charities providing Spanish translation and financial education support.

How can you contribute to our credit union and its Board of Directors?

I am passionate about promoting financial wellness and identifying ways to support businesses and individuals in an ever-changing economic environment. With my people and business management background and experience, I can make a positive impact and support Fox Communities Credit Union, its members and surrounding community.
