Could You Be Helping Someone Steal Your Identity?

Fox Communities Credit Union to host Free Seminar on Identity Theft

Do you place outgoing mail in your mailbox with the red flag up? Do you carry your Social Security card wherever you go? Do you reply to emails from people you don't know? Attend Fox Communities Credit Union's Identity Theft Seminar to see how you may be putting yourself at risk for identity theft!

This free seminar will be held on Wednesday, December 13, 2017, at Fox Communities Credit Union, 3401 E. Calumet Street, Appleton, and on Thursday, December 14, 2017 at the Tundra Lodge and Conference Center, 865 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay. Both seminars will be held from 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Presenter Julie Russell, Vice-President of Operations at Diversified Investigations, has over 27 years of law enforcement, investigative, and corporate security-related experience. She'll talk about the types of personal information identity thieves target, what they do with the information, steps to take to help avoid becoming a victim, and what to do if you suspect your identity has been stolen.

Reserve your spot online at: www.foxcu.org or by calling the Call Center at (920) 993-9000. This seminar is free and open to the public.

Fox Communities Credit Union is 80 years strong. Fox started as Combined Locks Credit Union in 1937 with a small office in the Locks Mill to serve the employees by giving them financial opportunities. In 1987 we became Fox Communities Credit Union and opened our charter to serve the community. Since that time we have had various partnerships, and today we serve over 99,000 members in 12 counties with 22 branches in all of those communities.

We also put people over profits, by living the People Helping People credit union mantra. We are locally owned and managed and are committed to making significant contributions to the local areas we serve. We also have almost 400 employees employed in our communities.
