

Community Christmas

December 23, 2016 | Fox Cities Stadium
11:00 am – 6:00 pm

Community Christmas is a unique event for the Fox Cities communities to come together and provide a traditional family meal for up to 600 less fortunate people in need of some holiday cheer.

What happens at Community Christmas?

- ❄ Families gather for a traditional holiday dinner along with a build your own sundae bar (compliments of Culver's of Darboy and Little Chute). Up to 600 people are served in three, two-hour shifts.
- ❄ Santa visits and brings special gifts for everyone.
- ❄ Each family attending receives a box of food from Feeding America and some paper products to take home.
- ❄ Fun family activities for all!

Who Attends?

The following organizations distribute invitations to families in need.

- ❄ Fox Valley Metro
- ❄ Menasha Police Department
- ❄ Old Glory Honor Flight (Veterans)
- ❄ B.A.B.E.S., Inc.
- ❄ Kaukauna, Little Chute, Kimberly and Appleton School Districts
- ❄ Community Clothes Closet
- ❄ LEAVEN
- ❄ Goodwill FISC program
- ❄ Boys and Girls Clubs

Can you help?

- ❄ Monetary donations are needed to spread joy and provide gifts for families. Feeding America, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization is accepting cash donations. Committee volunteers will shop for toys and purchase gift cards.
- ❄ Donate paper goods or hold a paper products drive.
- ❄ Donate new toys, pajamas, slippers, holiday socks, books, gift cards, etc.
- ❄ Volunteer.

All donations can be dropped off at Culver's of Darboy or Little Chute.
