Could You Be Helping Someone Steal Your Identity?

Fox Communities Credit Union to host Free Seminar on Identity Theft

Do you place outgoing mail in your mailbox with the red flag up? Do you carry your Social Security card wherever you go? Do you reply to emails from people you don't know? Attend Fox Communities Credit Union's Identity Theft Seminar to see how you may be putting yourself at risk for identity theft!

This free seminar will be held on Tuesday, August 19, at Fox Communities Credit Union, 3401 E. Calumet Street, Appleton, and on Wednesday, August 20 at the Tundra Lodge and Conference Center, 865 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay. Both seminars will be held from 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Presenter Julie Russell, Vice-President of Operations at Diversified Investigations, has over 23 years of law enforcement, investigative, and corporate security-related experience. She'll talk about the types of personal information identity thieves target, what they do with the information, steps to take to help avoid becoming a victim, and what to do if you suspect your identity has been stolen.
