Bike to the Beat, this Saturday, August 4

Bike to the Beat is a bike ride for all ages and abilities that takes place on Saturday August 4th. Registration is only available at packet pick up on Friday August 3 from 9 a.m. to 6 p. m. and ride day, August 4 from 6-9 a.m.

The bike ride features live original music throughout the course stops. This year the music you will hear at any of the stops is stellar. You'll hear our very own native son Cory Chisel and friends playing the live rendition of "Our Song" with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters kids for the very first time! You'll also see the new signage that will be put up in the City of Appleton. This all takes place during Bike to the Beat on the outside stage at Woodward Radio Group, 2800 E. College Ave. Appleton. It should be a lot of fun, so sign up today before you forget, and the prices rise.

All the proceeds from the ride registration fees go to the Fox Cares Foundation. The Fox Cares Foundation is a new community support initiative established by Fox Communities Credit Union that will be issuing grants to nonprofits that fits one of these criteria: Homelessness and Prevention; Hunger and Food Insecurity; and Culturing the Arts in Children and Adults. Learn more at FoxCares.org.

Check out the Mile of Music guide for more information and come out and join us for a great musical Saturday! For more information to register go to foxbiketothethebeat.com

See you on August 4th... You won't want to miss it!
