

REFUGE FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS REVEALS THE FINAL LINEUP FOR HOPELAND FESTIVAL

The unique two-day festival will celebrate community through a diverse lineup live music & visual artists starting on Friday, September 21 from 5:00pm – 10:00pm, and Saturday, September 22 from 5:00pm – 10:00pm.

Hopeland Festival will combine live music & riveting visual works from local artists. Hosted in downtown Green Bay - Hopeland Festival & Refuge Foundation for the Arts have partnered with local venues (Kavarna, Keggers, Lyric Room, Black & Tan Lounge, Neville Public Museum, Three Three Five, Cup O Joy, and Tiletown Brewing Company Roof Tap) to bring the event to life.

Refuge Foundation for the Arts, along with title sponsor Fox Communities Credit Union are pleased to announce the final ten artists for this year's lineup:

Paul Otteson - Madison, WI

Harpooner - Nashville, TN

Thelma and the Sleaze - Nashville, TN

Sterling Boyd - Appleton, WI

Reality Something - Nashville, TN

Lex Allen - Milwaukee, WI

Simon Balto - Indianapolis, IN

Walt Hamburger - Appleton, WI

Brandon Beebe - Madison, WI

Arum Rae - Brooklyn, NY

DJ Ross Grizzly - Miami, FL

Muddy Udders - Green Bay, WI

They join: Adriel Denaë, Feed the Dog, The Lately, Nicholas Raymond, Emily Kopp, David Paul Martin, Parker Gispert, Sam Trump, Micah Schnabel, Mayaeni, Creamer, Alex Ortega, Jonny P, McKinley Dixon, J-Council, Elle Winston, Colee James, and LOLO in rounding out a diverse and incredible lineup of music for the weekend.

The visual arts element, spearheaded by Refuge Artist in Residence Ally Wilber, will feature provocative and uplifting works from local Fox Cities artists—some of which may find a permanent home in Green Bay. The schedule for Hopeland Festival will be announced in the coming days along with a special Spotify playlist featuring our lineup.

For more information visit www.hopelandfestival.com.

About Refuge Foundation for the Arts: Refuge Foundation for the Arts is a non-profit organization providing sanctuary for the pursuit of creative expression through music and art. Founded in response to the lack of resources available to artists today, it is the mission of The Refuge to offer patronage and opportunity to creators in a supportive and collaborative environment. Bordered by the Fox River in Appleton, WI and built in 1935 by Capuchin-Franciscan monks, our beautiful 33,000 square foot facility houses recording studios, art studios, and artist residences amid ten acres of protected nature, gardens, and orchards. For more information, please visit www.refugearts.org.