

News Release

Chelsea Kocken
Marketing & Events Manager
On Broadway, Inc.
920-569-3425
chelsea@onbroadway.org

CONCERT LINEUP ANNOUNCED FOR LEVITT AMP GREEN BAY MUSIC SERIES

5/14/2019, GREEN BAY, WI – The countdown to an unforgettable season of free concerts under the summer sun in the Broadway District is underway! On Wednesday, May 15, the Levitt AMP Green Bay Music Series line up will be announced at the Summer in the City press conference, 10:15 AM on City Deck Landing (Cherry St. entrance). The impressive line up of artists will perform at Leicht Memorial Park each Tuesday at 5 PM from June 18 – August 27 (no concert July 23). The full line up and artists’ description will also be released to the media via email following the press conference tomorrow.

Sponsored in part by the Mortimer & Mimi Levitt Foundation, a national funder of creative placemaking that empowers communities to inject new life into underused public spaces through free, outdoor concerts to the public this summer at Leicht Memorial Park. The event is also supported by title sponsor, Fox Communities Credit Union.

The public is invited to bring their own blankets and chairs to the concerts, which will have an open lawn setting. Food, beverages and placemaking activities will be available on site. The Levitt AMP Green Bay Music Series is location at Leicht Memorial Park at 128 Dousman Street. Admission is free.

“The Levitt AMP Green Bay Music Series is more than just a concert series. It celebrates the artistry of music, promotes social inclusivity and brings people together through the power of music,” said Brian Johnson, executive director, On Broadway, Inc. “As our community grows and represents people of different perspectives and ethnic backgrounds, we want our cultural amenities and entertainment options to keep pace. Levitt provides a variety of options sure to appeal to every demographic in our community through free, original live music.”

Learn more at <http://levittamp.org>.

For more information about On Broadway, Inc. please visit: www.onbroadway.org

On Broadway, Inc. is a non-profit, community-based organization dedicated to strengthening the Green Bay community through economic development, historic preservation and promotion of downtown Green Bay’s Broadway District and the overall downtown community.